The Cultural Fusion Initiative is the catalyst for collaborative projects that span multiple artistic disciplines, transcending borders and political ideologies with students and global artists.

Join us as The Cultural Fusion Initiative hosts the world premiere of CORDELIA, a film by Nigeria's acclaimed filmmaker, storyteller, director, photographer, cinematographer and producer Tunde Kelani. TK, as he is popularly known in the Nollywood film community, is the special guest at this premiere in Mitchell Hall at University of Delaware as the UD Symphony Orchestra plays the score along with the first screening of the film, which is based upon the novel of Nigerian playwright, essayist and poet Femi Osofsyan.

Mitchell Hall at University of Delaware
FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 5 AT 8:00 P.M.
TICKETS FOR THIS EVENT ARE $10 AND ARE AVAILABLE AT http://www.udel.edu/culturalfusion
